

Domaine Guillot-Broux

Mâcon-Cruzille Le Clos de la Mollepierre

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- Elevating the wines of the Mâcon, the Guillot family has been a champion of organic winemaking and single vineyard wine production for nearly 70 years.
- Jean-Gérard Guillot founded Domaine Guillot-Broux in 1978 and was at the helm until his death in 2008. His sons Emmanuel and Patrice carry on his legacy.
- Organic farming was established in 1954 with the estate receiving certification in 1991.
- Specific terroirs from the villages of Cruzille, Gréville, and Chardonnay are highlighted, showcasing the diversity in climate and nature that this region has to offer.
- These wines are some of the best in the Mâcon and easily stand toe-to-toe qualitatively with their neighbors to the north.

APPELLATION

Mâcon-Cruzille

SUB-REGION

Mâcon

GRAPE VARIETY

100% Chardonnay

SOIL

Clay-limestone

VINEYARDS & VITICULTURE

This clos, surrounded by a dry stone wall nearly two metres high, was originally owned by the Abbey of Cluny, and fell into disuse due to Phylloxera. The estate started replanting the vineyard in 2011, and in 2015 produced the first vintage.

HARVEST & VINIFICATION

Aged for 11 months in oak barrels.

ALCOHOL BY VOLUME

13.5

PACK SIZE

12x750mL