

Domaine de la Grande Colline

Vin de France Blanc Bibendum

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- Domaine de la Grande Colline is located near the top of the hill of Cornas, overlooking the Rhône River.
- Vigneron Jonathan Jacquart worked with local legends Emmanuel Reynaud and Thierry Allemand before founding his own estate.
- Jacquart has made significant improvements to the vineyards, introducing biodiversity in the form of cows, bees, and new plantations of various plants and trees.
- Vinification is very simple, using whole bunches with light extraction and aging in neutral barrels sourced from the Dujac estate.
- These are wines that taste true to the Cornas terroir of deep, dark Syrah with savory, peppery notes and an incredible amount of depth.

APPELLATION

Vin de France

SUB-REGION

Cornas

GRAPE VARIETY

100% Clairette

FARMING

Sustainable, Biodynamic

SOIL

Clay-limestone

VINEYARDS & VITICULTURE

The organically-grown grapes come from Saint-Gervais in the Gard.

HARVEST & VINIFICATION

Manual harvest. Indigenous yeasts. Vinification in stainless steel vats, natural settling after 24 hours, aging in stainless steel. No inputs other than a minimal amount of SO₂.

ALCOHOL BY VOLUME

13.0

PACK SIZE

6x750mL

