

Thomas Farge Cornas Les Versantes

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- The Farge family has been making wine in Saint-Joseph for four generations, and Thomas is embarking on a project of bottling under his name.
- Thomas focuses on single-site bottlings throughout Saint-Joseph, Cornas, Saint-Péray, and Condrieu.
- All farming is organic, with Ecocert certification in 2024. Biodynamic principles are also followed.
- Work in the cellar is ever-evolving, with the use of oak, concrete, and steel determined by the vintage.
- With boundless energy and enthusiasm, Thomas represents the best of the up-and-coming generation of Northern Rhône winemakers.

APPELLATION

Cornas

SUB-REGION

Northern Rhône

GRAPE VARIETY

100% Syrah

FARMING

Organic (Certification in Conversion)

SOIL

Granite

VINEYARDS & VITICULTURE

A blend from the upper hillsides of both the Sauman (50%) and Reynard lieu-dits (50%). The Sauman plot was purchased by Guy Farge. The Reynard plot is leased, but all farming and viticulture is undertaken by Thomas.

HARVEST & VINIFICATION

Whole cluster fermentation. Aged in three-year-old vats (400 liters) for 12 months, followed by two months in tank.

ALCOHOL BY VOLUME

14.0

PACK SIZE

12x750mL