

Domaine Paul Janin et Fils

Moulin-à-Vent Domaine des Vignes du Tremblay

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- The story of Paul Janin et Fils is that of cru Moulin-a-Vent – this reference-point estate has been growing Gamay here for over a century.
- The Janins are champions of this appellation, elevating its status through the steady creation of handcrafted wines.
- Practicing sustainable and organic methods for decades, the estate has recently applied for full certification, which they will receive in 2024.
- Work in the cellar is traditional, with long macerations and tank aging.
- With the fifth generation of Janins poised to join the family business, this is a Beaujolais estate that celebrates its heritage.

VINEYARDS & VITICULTURE

A blend from Romanèche-Thorins and Chénas, including Les Greneriers, Les Burdelines, Les Pérelles, Champs de Cours, Les Brussellions, and Aux Caves. Most of the vineyard is made up of old vines, trained according to the traditional low gobelet technique. A couple of parcels of young vines are double-cordon pruned to facilitate soil management and to allow for more efficient trellising. Managed without the use of weed killers, its top soil is tilled three to four times.

HARVEST & VINIFICATION

The grapes are hand-harvested and transported in small 35 kg baskets. All of the grapes are sorted on the sorting table and pressing was undertaken following a 12 to 15 days of winemaking period. 80% de-stemmed grapes. Aged in vats over a period of ten months on fine lees, including the use of micro-oxygenation. The different plots are vinified and matured separately. They are only blended together to create this wine after being tasted and just before bottling. Vinified without the use of SO₂, then bottled with nitrogen gas with two grams of SO₂ in tank before bottling.
