Maison Leroy

Bourgogne Blanc

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- Madame Lalou Bize-Leroy is a Burgundian legend who needs no introduction. With her family's 50% ownership in Domaine Romanée-Conti, she has access to the best of the best in the Côte d'Or.
- With a wine family lineage that stretches back to 1868, Lalou has earned her rightful place in the pantheon of wine greats.
- Her uncompromising standards make Maison Leroy a négociant house par excellence.
- Wines are always aged and finished by Lalou, then released to the market only when they are ready.
- These wines are the purest expressions of Burgundy, and proof of the second-to-none quality of the Leroy name.

GRAPE VARIETY

100% Chardonnay

FARMING

Sustainable, Organic (Ecocert), Biodynamic (Demeter)

SOIL

Limestone and clay

VINEYARDS & VITICULTURE

Sourced from declassified parcels in Auxey Duresses and Puligny Montrachet, Lalou acquires the juice after alcoholic fermentation and finishes the wines in her own barrels in her winery.

HARVEST & VINIFICATION

Aged in mostly neutral French oak barrels

ALCOHOL BY VOLUME

12.5

PACK SIZE

12x750mL