

Niepoort – Quinta de Nápoles

Douro Tinto Redoma

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- Visionary winemaker and fifth generation of the historic Port house Niepoort, Dirk Niepoort is redefining what the Douro Valley can offer.
- Acquired by the Niepoort family in 1987, Quinta de Nápoles is a 30-hectare estate in the heart of the Cima Corgo.
- From these north-facing, steep-sloped vineyards, Niepoort crafts a range of dry wines that have evolved significantly over the years.
- These wines represent the new Portuguese style, and are lighter, fresher, lower-alcohol wines (often just 11–13%) that reflect a more modern, terroir-driven aesthetic.
- The world's perception of Portuguese wine is undergoing a major transformation—and Quinta de Nápoles stands at the forefront of this change.

VINEYARDS & VITICULTURE

Redoma was the first Douro still wine produced by Niepoort in 1991. Produced from several north-facing old vineyards, averaging 60 to 90 years old, located in the Cima Corgo Region.

HARVEST & VINIFICATION

The grapes are manually harvested, and whole bunches were transferred into stainless steel lagares equipped with mechanized stomping devices, where they macerated for a short period of time. Lastly the wine went through malolactic fermentation in old wooden barrels (70% in 228 L barrels and 30% in 2000 L), where it also matured for 22 months.
