Niepoort

Douro Tinto Vertente

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- Niepoort is one of the great Port houses and is now in its sixth generation of tradition and innovation.
- Fifth-generation owner Dirk Niepoort has paved the way for the production of dry wine in Port, and has been instrumental in elevating its status.
- Always interested in pushing the boundaries of what the Port wine industry looks like, Dirk, now joined by his son, Daniel, has acquired access to fruit throughout Portugal.
- Sustainable and organic work in the vineyard and cellar is always prioritized.
- Working with properties from the north to the south, Niepoort can be counted on to provide fortified and table wines that celebrate all that Portugal has to offer.

VINEYARDS & VITICULTURE
The grapes come partially from young vines of Quinta de Nápoles in the Tedo Valley, and the rest from old vineyards of Vale do Pinhão on the right bank of the Douro river.

HARVEST & VINIFICATION
After a meticulous bunch selection in the vineyards, the grapes were sorted a second time in the cellar. The Vertente was fermented in conical stainless steel tanks before being left to mature for 22 months in French oak barrels.
