

Niepoort – Quinta de Nápoles

Douro Tinto Vertente

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- Visionary winemaker and fifth generation of the historic Port house Niepoort, Dirk Niepoort is redefining what the Douro Valley can offer.
- Acquired by the Niepoort family in 1987, Quinta de Nápoles is a 30-hectare estate in the heart of the Cima Corgo.
- From these north-facing, steep-sloped vineyards, Niepoort crafts a range of dry wines that have evolved significantly over the years.
- These wines represent the new Portuguese style, and are lighter, fresher, lower-alcohol wines (often just 11–13%) that reflect a more modern, terroir-driven aesthetic.
- The world's perception of Portuguese wine is undergoing a major transformation—and Quinta de Nápoles stands at the forefront of this change.

VINEYARDS & VITICULTURE

The grapes come partially from young vines of Quinta de Nápoles in the Tado Valley, and the rest from old vineyards of Vale do Pinhão on the right bank of the Douro river.

HARVEST & VINIFICATION

After a meticulous bunch selection in the vineyards, the grapes were sorted a second time in the cellar. The Vertente was fermented in conical stainless steel tanks before being left to mature for 22 months in French oak barrels.
